MEMORANDUM FOR: All New NID Recipients

SUBJECT: The National Intelligence Daily [redacted]

25X1

1. The Intelligence Community endeavors to provide current intelligence information and analysis to Senior policy officials of the government and to Senior military commanders through the National Intelligence Daily (NID). Leaks of the sensitive information in the NID--doubtless attributable to only a very few irresponsible individuals--have led to the establishment of special handling procedures to ensure that no unauthorized individuals have access to the NID, that it is not reproduced, and that it is returned to the CIA promptly. [redacted]

25X1

2. I am obligated to require that all recipients of the NID meet the following specific security requirements related to its handling:

- No one other than the named addressee is to have access to the NID without authorization of CIA's NID Control Officer [redacted]
- No part of the NID is to be reproduced without the explicit authorization of CIA's NID Control Officer.
- The NID is to be returned to the CIA within 72 hours of issuance. [redacted]

3. I am committed to providing the most prompt and high-quality intelligence possible to the policy community. At the same time, however, I am obligated by law to protect intelligence sources and methods and will not hesitate to take all authorized legal measures to fulfill that obligation--even at the expense of denying information to officials who do not demonstrate sufficient interest or vigilance in protecting the information entrusted to them. NOTE FOR:

This will be photographed and printed on to letterhead after it is signed...so it will be more decorous than the crummy xerox we have been using.

Thus, Mr. Casey should sign the original on plain bond as indicated.

The attached memorandum for your signature is an update of the one you sent to all recipients of the National Intelligence Daily in May 1983 advising them of the sensitivity of the material presented in the NID and of their obligation for the proper handling of the document. The original memorandum (copy at Tab A) continues to be sent to new readers of the NID, but much of the information in it is out of date. The new memorandum will be provided only to new readers at the time they are approved for receiving the document.

1. The Intelligence Community endeavors to provide current intelligence information and analysis to senior policy officials of the government and military commanders through the National Intelligence Daily (NID).
